Note:

Each year a special effort is made to place this booklet in the hands of interested citizens and legislators as early in the new year as possible. Because of this early deadline, final figures in such areas as pupil population, size of staff, and cost per pupil are unavailable.

To meet the need for the data, preliminary figures have been used where final figures were not ready. Preliminary figures are subject to modification later on, but they will serve the needs of most people. Precise data for all tables will be at hand and available on inquiry around the end of February 1977.
